RUBY

Ruby is a charmingly awkward, comedically insecure sixteen-year-old girl. She might seem like your typical high-school teenager: she tutors her crush, wants to go to prom, and doesn't want to be left out of her friend group. But for Ruby there's an extra complication, she's not human — she's a kraken living on land, pretending to be human. Everyday, Ruby hides her true self and as a result she feels like she doesn't belong, well, anywhere. It doesn't help that she lives in Oceanside, and her mum will never let her go in the ocean, the place she feels most drawn to, because of some abstract danger. Ruby, ever the confrontation-avoider, always obeys her mum.
